- Assessments to be completed by each individual during class time.
- Answer sheets to be uploaded to Brightspace within the timeframe of the exam.
- A total of 100% of final marks will be awarded to coursework assessments.
- There is no final exam.

Health & Safety

- To avoid stress and strain on your back, neck and wrists please ensure that you are in a comfortable position when attending the online sessions preferably at a desk or table not sitting on your bed or sofa.
- If you need to take short stretching breaks then please do.
- You can always make a small platform to sit on a lower surface to give you additional height. So if you must use a sofa and low coffee table then make a box to sit on the low table thus increasing the height and making it more comfortable to write.

Discipline

- Good behaviour is expected from each student at all times, whether in Classroom, Canteen or in any other section of the University and this also extends to the online environment.
- When online please click the “raise hand” button if you want to speak or comment in the chat.
- Respect should be shown to each other both in class and online.
- Safe space: My class room is a safe environment so everyone should feel confident to ask questions in the chat box without ridicule or judgment.
- NB you can also private chat by clicking that option.

Construction Management

- Self learning: You will only get out of this programme what you put in to it.
- Create a diary and mark the dates when assignments are due.
- Do not leave all your assignments until the last minute.
- Ask your Lecturer for help if you are unsure about something
- Enjoy your time at TU Dublin
